

THE BRONC

"A pause.
We turn and take
A backward glance at
Our year past.

We behold...
A profusion of memories.
The record has been written.
We are proud.
And we are glad that our
Fortunes let us walk
This way."

PROPHECY

It is now the year 1991, twenty years after the class of "71" has graduated. As I was waiting for my plane to Paris, I ran into Deb Pistulka at the airport terminal. We visited for sometime, mainly talking about the good old times at F.H.S. Deb informed me that she, too, was on her way to Paris. It seems she was still actively engaged in following the army career of one soldier in particular, that of Dwight Pepper. As we boarded the plane together, we ran into another former classmate, Lou Ann Klundt. Lou Ann was serving as stewardess, a position she had held since her divorce from her former high school companion and husband, Killer Z. After a short chat with Lou Ann, we learned that another classmate was on board, namely, Maurice Koenig, the pilot of our plane. Lou Ann then went up front and told the pilot that Deb and I were aboard. After the aircraft was airborne, Maurice came back to talk to us. We found out that he married his old high school sweetheart, Anita, and has three little Maurice juniors. During the course of our conversation, we learned that another of our classmates, Mark Ebsen, was also in Paris. It seems he is operating his own playboy club. His former high school sweetheart, Barb Olson, is one of the employees. Everyone was wondering what happened to Nila. As it turned out, Nila had married the famous professor of science, Professor Fuzz.
